GetSmart
INJURY NETWORK
Information. Connections. Support.

The After-Accident Checklist.

Print it, or save it to your phone. Free, and yours to keep.

AT THE SCENE

- [ ] Check for injuries. Call 911 if anyone is hurt.
- [ ] Get to a safe spot if you can. Turn on your hazards.
- [ ] Call the police. Ask how to get the report number.
- [ ] Exchange name, phone, insurance, license, and plate with the other driver.
- [ ] Ask any witnesses for a name and number.
- [ ] Photograph: each vehicle, the whole scene, the road and signals, anything on the ground.
- [ ] Write down the time, place, weather, and what happened.

IN THE DAYS AFTER

- [ ] Consider getting checked by a doctor, even if you feel fine.
- [ ] Follow any treatment instructions you are given.
- [ ] Get a copy of the police report when it is available.
- [ ] Keep every receipt: medical, towing, rental, repairs.
- [ ] Write a short timeline: what happened, and how you have felt since.
- [ ] Put all of it in one folder, paper or on your phone.

Write the details down on page 2, and keep it with your insurance card.

GetSmart Injury Network is a marketing and intake service, not a law firm, and does not provide legal advice. Participating law firms are independent and pay GetSmart for advertising and intake services. You are free to choose any attorney. General information, not legal advice. Every situation is different — consult a licensed attorney about your specific circumstances.

Details worth writing down.

Fill it in at the scene, or as soon as you can, while it's fresh.

DATE & TIME

LOCATION

POLICE REPORT #

OTHER DRIVER

THEIR INSURANCE

THEIR PLATE

WITNESS: NAME AND PHONE

Your short timeline: what happened, and how you have felt since

GetSmart Injury Network is a marketing and intake service, not a law firm, and does not provide legal advice. Participating law firms are independent and pay GetSmart for advertising and intake services. You are free to choose any attorney. General information, not legal advice. Every situation is different — consult a licensed attorney about your specific circumstances.